TUALATIN HILLS PARK & RECREATION DISTRICT PARKS BOND CITIZEN OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

The Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District Board of Directors is now accepting applications for the Parks Bond Citizen Oversight Committee established as a result of the successful $100 million bond measure passed by District voters on November 4, 2008. The measure provided funds for the District to: preserve local natural areas; preserve and restore lands near creeks and streams for the protection of local water quality and fish and wildlife habitat; improve existing local neighborhood and community parks, including sports fields and play equipment; purchase and develop land for new local neighborhood and community parks; build new trail connections and purchase land to create new local trails; improve, expand, and renovate certain existing local facilities, including safety and seismic structural upgrades; and create ADA improvements.

Six positions are currently available on the Committee. Please review the following purpose of the Committee and submit an application (attached) by February 23, 2015. Preferred background and skills being sought for the Committee are primarily professionals with expertise in real estate, finance, auditing, public budgeting, banking, general business and law. New applicants must also complete a volunteer background check (attached) – please include the completed form with your application (this is not necessary for current committee members seeking reappointment).
