Community Members Invited to Apply for THPRD Budget Committee

October 17, 2018: The Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District is encouraging community members to apply for openings on the district's Budget Committee. Applications are currently available at www.thprd.org to fill two vacancies on the Committee. The deadline to submit applications is Friday, November 16.

The Budget Committee is responsible for providing public oversight of budget preparations, recommending changes to the proposed budget, and supplying information to the public about district business and operations.

Public members of all backgrounds and experience levels are encouraged to apply. The public positions are critical to represent the broad perspectives of district patrons. The Committee generally meets three times a year during week-day evening meetings.

The 10-member committee includes all five THPRD board members and five public members. Applicants must reside within park district boundaries.

Applications will be reviewed, and appointments made by the THPRD Board of Directors. Terms will begin in January 2019.

Applications are available at the park district's Administration Office, 15707 SW Walker Road, Beaverton, or online at www.thprd.org. For more information, call Jessica Collins, executive assistant, at 503-645-6433 or send an email to jcollins@thprd.org.
